Dear Mr. Robinson:

Thank you for the recent invitation to attend the National Security Industrial Association Thirty-ninth Annual Dinner on Thursday, 30 September in Washington, DC.

Unfortunately, I will be away from the area on official business at that time. I am nonetheless honored that you asked, and I will miss hearing Caspar Weinberger speak.

Please pass along my regards to your distinguished colleagues on the occasion of their annual dinner.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
Director of Central Intelligence
